

CERTIFICATION DECISIONS POLICY

MSS Global assessments are undertaken through risk based representative sampling. Audit recommendations for certification, refusal of certification, maintenance of certification, extension or reductions of scope of certification, renewing, suspending or restoring following suspension, or withdrawing of certification are subject to an independent review through MSS Global nominated competent decision maker(s).